Don't Let Feelings Fool You—Continued from October

Psalm 94:12-13 says, "Blessed (happy, fortunate, to be envied) is the man whom You discipline and instruct, O Lord, and teach out of Your law, that You may give him power to keep himself calm in the days of adversity." This Scripture lets us know that God allows things in our lives to affect us emotionally so that we can learn how not to be led by our feelings. His ultimate goal is to get us to the point that, no matter what is going on, we remain calm. Who's going to keep us calm? We are going to keep ourselves calm. How? By the power of the Holy Spirit, at work in us. All God wants us to do is to get in the habit of running to Him for grace (supernatural inner strength) to exercise self-control over our emotions. Hebrews 4:16 says, "Let us then fearlessly and confidently and boldly draw near to the throne of grace (the throne of God's unmerited favour to us sinners), that we may receive mercy [for our failures] and find grace to help in good time for every need [appropriate help and well-timed help, coming just when we need it]." I encourage you to stop bowing down to your feelings--stop depending on and placing more value on how you feel than on the Word of God. Exalt the Word over your feelings--believe what the Bible says. Instead of saying, "I don't feel as if God loves me," "I don't feel as if I'm forgiven," or "I don't feel as if I have a future," say, "God does love me, and nothing can separate me from His love. He has heard my confession of sin, and He has forgiven me and cleansed me. And God has a positive plan for my future because His Word says so" (see Jer. 29:11; Rom. 8:38-39; 1 John 1:9).

Every time feelings come up to try and steal your righteousness, peace, and joy, find out what the Word of God says, and then open your mouth and speak the Word. Eventually the truth will override and change your feelings.

Every man should get married some time; after all,
happiness is not the only thing in life!!

Bachelor's should be heavily taxed. It is not fair that some men should be happier than others.

Don't marry for money; you can borrow it cheaper.
I don't worry about terrorism. I was married for two years.

I asked my wife, "Where do you want to go for our anniversary?"
She said, "Somewhere I have never been!" I told her,
"How about the kitchen?"

When a newly married couple smiles, everyone knows why.
When a ten-year married couple smiles, everyone wonders why.

When a man opens the door of his car for his wife, you can be sure of one thing: either the car is new or the wife.

Birthdays: Be Blessed in Jesus Name!

We always hold hands. If I let go, she shops.
My wife was in beauty saloon for two hours.
That was only for the estimate.

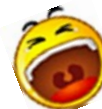

She got a mudpack and looked great for two days.
Then the mud fell off.

She ran after the garbage truck, yelling, "Am I too late for the garbage?"
Following her down the street I yelled, "No, jump in."

The First 3 Years of Marriage

- ♦ In the first year of marriage, the man speaks and the woman listens.
- ♦ In the second year, the woman speaks and the man listens.
- ♦ In the third year, they both speak and the neighbours listen.
